

$1 invested in protecting new Canadian homes from high wind avoids $6 in future damages, on average.

CSA S520:22 provides options that can help protect Canadian households from high wind impacts.

How are homes damaged by high wind?

For a 1% increase in construction cost, application of options outlined in CSA S520:22 can help reduce very severe, very dangerous wind damage to homes – including total loss of roof components.

